

Technical Bulletin 2: Campaigns and Expeditions of the Armed Forces Since WWII Which Qualify for Veterans' Preference

Date Reviewed: May 1, 2007

Chapter 2003-42, Laws of Florida, made significant changes to the laws concerning veterans preference in appointment and retention. The changes became effective on May 23, 2003. The purpose of this bulletin is to make you aware of these changes as they affect your daily operations.

Military personnel receive many awards and decorations. To help public employers make decisions concerning entitlement to veterans' preference, the following list identifies those awards that are campaign and expeditionary medals. Any Armed Forces Expeditionary Medal, whether listed here or not, is qualifying for veterans' preference. The Global War on Terrorism Expeditionary Medal is qualifying for veterans' preference, provided the individual is otherwise eligible. The Department of Defense, not DVA, determines who is entitled to receive a medal, and under what circumstances. The list below is derived from DoD 1348.33-M, Manual of Military Decorations and Awards.

DD Form 214, Certificate of Discharge or Separation from Active Duty, or other official documents (to include military discharge papers, or equivalent certification from the DVA listing military status, dates of service, and discharge type) issued by the branch of service are required as verification of eligibility for veterans' preference.
